Words Matter: Ethical Communication Considerations in EOL Care

Dr. Tracy Schroeffer, PhD, MSW, MA Professor at the Sandra Rosenbaum School of Social Work, University of Wisconsin-Madison will discuss how words have the power to support, comfort, hurt, and harm, particularly when the listener is living with a life-limiting illness. This session will focus on ethical communication considerations for professionals providing hospice and palliative care to patients and their families. Considerations will be described, examples provided, and recommended strategies discussed.

Please submit any questions for the Dr. Schroeffer in advance to wihpca@badgerbay.co.
